We Begin Again in Love

Narrator: For remaining silent when a single voice would have made a difference...

(Congregation sings each time in response: "We forgive ourselves and each other. We begin again in love.")

We forgive ourselves and each other. We begin again in love.

For each time that our fears have made us rigid and inaccessible...

We forgive ourselves...

For each time we have struck out in anger without just cause...

We begin again in love.

Words: Robert Eller-Isaacs, 1951 -
For each time that our greed has blinded us to the needs of others...

For the selfishness that set us apart and alone...

For falling short of the admonitions of the spirit...

For losing sight of our unity...

For those and for so many acts both evident and subtle which have fueled the illusion of separateness...
